Re: Ex Parte Presentation CC Docket No. 92-90

Dear Ms. Searcy:

On behalf of the Gannett Co., Inc. ("Gannett") and newspaper companies controlled by Gannett, this will advise that on September 8, 1992, Ms. Mimi Feller, Gannett's Senior Vice President/Public Affairs and Government Relations, forwarded the attached letters to Commission staff with reference to the above captioned proceeding. Ms. Feller's letters express concern about the possible application of these new rules to companies that are affiliates of telemarketers.

Pursuant to Section 1.1206(a)(2) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206(a)(2), I am filing with you an original and one copy of each of the aforementioned letters.

Please contact me if you have any questions about this filing.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter D. O'Connell

Dear Abe:

You were terrific to spend so much time with Pete O'Connell and me last week on the telemarketing issue. I especially appreciate the flagging of the issue regarding calls from two completely different newspapers within one company. We have since met with several folks on the 8th floor and they are sensitive to the problem.

It was good to meet you.

Best,

Dear Greg:

Thanks for taking the time last week to discuss the telemarketing issue with Pete O'Connell and me. We did some follow-up meetings with some of the folks on the 8th Floor.

Our main concern in the follow-up meetings was the issue you, Abe and Suzanne flagged regarding calls from completely different newspapers within the same company. It is a big concern of ours and I hope that it can be solved.

Once again, many thanks for all the time you spent with us.

Best,

Dear Pete:

You were great to see Pete O'Connell and me on the spur of the moment this morning regarding the telemarketing issue.

I appreciate your sensitivity about the issue involving calls from two completely different newspapers/products within Gannett, such as the Detroit News and USA TODAY. I hope it can be worked out.

I am seeing Susan Buck in two hours. Will pass on your greetings.

Best,

Dear Charla:

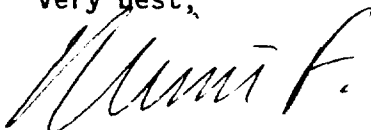

It was super of you to meet with me and Pete O'Connell on such short notice last Thursday about the telemarketing issue.

The treatment of calls coming from entirely different newspapers, such as the Detroit News and USA TODAY, continues to be of concern to us. We have met with other offices about the problem and they were sensitive to it.

I hope all of you will be able to find some reasonable way to solve the issue.

Once again, thanks for the good meeting.

Very best,
